Dear [Mr./Ms. Last Name],

I am writing to apply for Marketing Specialist position at [Company Name]. I found this job posting on [company's page or LinkedIn]. I am a 3rd year student of Business Administration program with a concentration in Marketing at VinUniversity and I am trying to apply what I learned so far in class to a team that values creative, audience-first marketing above everything.

Outside of VinUniversity, I have recently completed high school and have been developing my skills in the area of Marketing and Content Creation. During high school, I was the Marketing Team Member for the Badminton Club at my school. My main role was to organize and promote club events, such as recruitment drives held at the start of each semester. I would write up announcements for upcoming events and create social media posts to promote events to the wider student body. As a Specialist Board Member for the Olympian in Kane Cinema club, I wrote competition questions for nationwide quiz showmatches, held in inter-school formats modeled on Đường lên đỉnh Olympia. These questions required in-depth knowledge of a subject, and I had to be able to write up this knowledge in clear audience-ready copy. My studies at VinUniversity have since provided me with a greater in-depth knowledge of key concepts of marketing, such as marketing strategy and consumer behavior. I am also bilingual in Vietnamese and English (holding an IELTS 7.0 score). Therefore, I would be able to write and adapt content to a variety of different audiences.

I look forward to speaking with you about how my prior experience in event promotion, copy writing, and in teams could add value to your team. Thank you for your time in reviewing my application. I will follow up this week to confirm receipt of my application. In the meantime, I can be reached at vut24595@gmail.com at any time.

Sincerely,

Vu Viet Thanh
